

News and Views from Vail

Dear Friends,

Spring skiing has arrived with bright blue skies and tons of sunshine. It's a great time to visit, so come out and see us! Have you heard of snow biking? This week I heard of this new snow sport- ski biking at night by head lamp! Adventure ridge offers this "not for the faint of heart" activity to try. Then go to the new Bistro 17 on top of the mountain for a gourmet feast!

March's main Vail event is the American Ski Classic where World Champions compete along with the legends of skiing. Come out and cheer on your favorites! Vail is full of fun and folly this month. Yesterday I saw a group of penguins walking up Bridge Street! What a great break from the cares of the times.

Till next month! Diana
